

DESIGN FOCUS: GOING GREEN. BRING THE OUTDOORS INSIDE.

1.....//

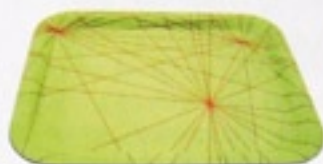

The Koia lamp by Yuniic makes your home feel cosy by emitting a soft light. The wire frame and cable match the inner lampshade fabric. Comes in five colours. Price available on request.

Add some lushness to your life this spring. If budding flowers and chirping birds leave you longing for a touch of the outdoors in your home, take note: green is the colour for interiors this season. Kiss goodbye to brash, acidic lime and welcome a fresher, calmer hue. Inside suggests seven items that say summer is just around the corner. SS

2.....//

These water-snake leather and lamb nappa "Vide-Poche" bowls by Brigitte Naef are great for catching keys or jewellery in the hall, bathroom or bedroom. CHF 255.

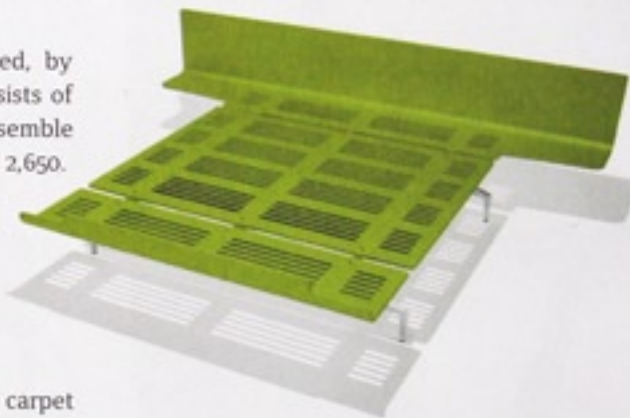

3.....//

Trays with mesmerising geometric designs transport drinks to a new level of cool. Created by Matrix Design from their 2007 collection. From CHF 45 to 69.

4.....//

The LegnoLetto modular wooden bed, by Alfredo Häberli for Alias Design, consists of individual parts, allowing you to assemble creative snoozing positions. From CHF 2,650.

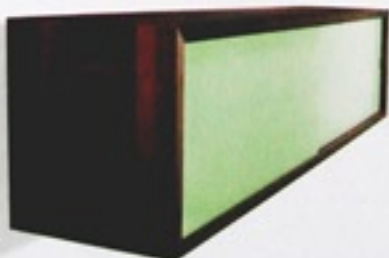

5.....//

Unify your living spaces with the Aoe carpet designed by Sabine Leuthold for Swiss carpet company Tisca Tiara. Comes in assorted colours and sizes. Price available on request.

.....//

Choose your wood type, size and sliding glass door colour to personalise this sideboard by Handwerkskollektiv (shown in damped cacia). Item here CHF 2,500.

7.....//

You don't need green fingers to cultivate jungle foliage in your flat. Hydroplant offers a plant care service to clients who want to keep their potted pals good-looking and healthy. Service charges available on request.

